

Global History Seminar Series No.93

16:30-18:30 (JST)
Friday 20 Nov 2020

Venue ID: 881 9209 5665

(Free however registration is required here.)

Speaker

Dr. Nicole CuUnjieng Aboitiz
(Clare Hall, University of Cambridge)

Title

Philippine Asianist thought and Southeast Asian Pan-Asianist action in the "periphery" of Asia at the turn of the twentieth century

Bio: Dr. Nicole CuUnjieng Aboitiz is a Research Fellow at Clare Hall, University of Cambridge, working on global intellectual history and Southeast Asian cultural-environmental history. She holds a PhD in Southeast Asian and International History from Yale University and was previously a Postdoctoral Fellow at the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs at Harvard University. Her first book, Asian Place, Filipino Nation: A Global Intellectual History of the Philippine Revolution, 1887-1912 was published by Columbia University Press in 2020. She is the Executive Director of the Toynebee Prize Foundation, the premiere organization for global history.

Abstract & Other Details available: Global History Seminar no. 93

Global History Seminar Series is coorganised by Institute for Open and Transdisciplinary Research Initiatives: OTRI, Osaka University and the Asian Association of World Historians.